Dear Professor Zhou,

Thank you for your interest in the Institute for Humane Studies and its summer workshops for college students, graduate students, and recent graduates.

The Institute is interested in attracting students to these programs from around the world. To that end, we appreciate any efforts you can make to encourage students you know – both in the United States and abroad – to apply to these programs.

The Institute for Humane Studies is a non-profit educational institute located in Arlington, Virginia. For the past 20 years, IHS has sponsored workshops designed to encourage students to consider various approaches to resolve economic and social problems.

More information about our programs can be found at our website at www.TheIHS.org.

Sincerely,

Damon Chetson
Director of Educational Programs
